2. The Council's revenues and expenses constitute a separate part of the State Budget.

3. The administrator of the budgetary part corresponding to the Council is the Chairman of the Council.

4. The draft plan of the revenues and expenses adopted by the Council is forwarded by the Chairman of the Council to the minister in charge of the budget for the purpose of being incorporated into the draft budgetary act on the basis of Article 139 par. 2 of the Act of 27 August 2009 on public finance (Journal of Laws No. 157, item 1240, as amended⁵).

Chapter 3

Proceedings before the Council

Article 28. 1. Member of the Council is excluded by virtue of the law from cases:

1) which concern him;

2) which concern his spouse, relatives or kinsmen in direct line, lateral relatives within the fourth degree of consanguinity and lateral kinsmen within the second degree of consanguinity;

3) persons associated with him due to adoption, guardianship or wardship and in cases in which he was or is a proxy.

2. The reasons for the exclusion remain in force after the cessation of marriage, adoption, guardianship or wardship that justifies it.

3. The Council excludes the member at his request or at the request of the person whose case is subject to a review if there is a circumstance of a kind that it could cause a justified doubt as to the member's impartiality in the given case.

Article 29. 1. In individual cases the person whose rights or obligations the Council's resolution is supposed to concern is a party to the proceedings before the Council.

2. The party to the proceedings is informed about the date of the meeting during which his case will be considered.

Article 30. 1. In individual cases, should it be determined that there are documents missing which make it impossible to consider the case, the Chairman orders for them to be supplemented within the required deadline, under the pain of the petition not being reviewed.

2. If personal files are required for the individual case to be considered, the Chairman asks that they be presented to the Council. The competent body or institution is obliged to present the files immediately to the Council.

2a. In individual matters, concerning the appointment to the post of a judge of common court or an trainee judge, the Chairperson of the Council shall request the submission of personal files of a candidate and other documents to the authorities and institutions covered by the ICT system via the ICT system. The candidate's personal files and documents requested by the Chairperson of the Council may be submitted via the ICT system.

Article 31. 1. The Chairman appoints a team whose task is to prepare the individual case to be considered during the Council's meeting. The team is composed of three to five members of the Council.

2. Judges of the court with the activities of which the case is associated and of the court operating in the same judicial district cannot be members of the team.

3. The designated member of the Council may be excluded from the team. The Council decides about the exclusion at the member's request.

Article 32. 1. Correspondence concerning cases being examined by the Council is delivered to the parties to the proceedings against confirmation of receipt.

1a. Letters and other documents in individual matters reviewed by the Council and concerning the appointment to the post of a judge of common court or an trainee judge, as well as Council resolutions adopted in those matters shall be delivered to the candidates via the ICT system. The notifications shall be deemed effective as soon as the candidate logs in to the ICT system or within 14 days of uploading a letter into the ICT system.

2. Resolutions of the Council are delivered in the form of copies authenticated by the Council Office.

3. The case files are available to the parties to the proceedings taking into account the regulations concerning protection of confidential information and protection of personal data. The parties to the proceedings may inspect the case files and make copies or excerpts of such files. Upon a written request the party to the proceedings may receive copies and excerpts of the files confirmed by the Council Office to be true copies of the originals.

Article 33. 1. In individual cases the Council adopts resolutions after a thorough consideration of the case, on the basis of available documentation and clarifications provided by the parties to the proceedings or other parties, if such have been submitted.

2. In justified cases the Council may request that the party to the proceedings appear in person or that it provide written clarifications or supplement the materials required in the case. The provision of Article 30 par. 2 applies accordingly.

3. Explanations of the candidate for the post of a judge of common court or an trainee judge and any supplementary materials may also be submitted via the ICT system.

Article 34. 1. In preparing the candidates to be appointed for the post of a judge or an trainee judge to be reviewed and assessed at the Council meeting, the team assumes a position by an absolute majority of votes in the presence of all its members.

2. The ballot in the cases referred to in par. 1 is open unless the team decides by a majority of votes to hold it in secrecy.

3. The stance of the team in the cases referred to in par. 1 must be justified.

4. The meetings of the team in the cases referred to in par. 1 are minuted.

Article 35. 1. If more than one candidate applied for the position of a judge or an trainee judge, the team drafts a list of recommended candidates.

2. When determining the order of the candidates on the list the team relies, above all, on the assessment of the qualifications of the candidates, and, moreover, takes into account:

1) professional experience, opinions of the superiors, recommendations, publications and other documents attached to the registration card;

2) opinion from the board of a competent court and evaluation of a competent general assembly of judges.

Article 36. 1. In cases where the post of a judge or an trainee judge is applied for by candidates being advocates, legal counsels, notaries, public prosecutors, trainee prosecutors, counsel or senior counsel to or a vice-president of the State Treasury Solicitors' Office, the following bodies or authorities shall be notified about the team meeting: Supreme Bar Council, National Council of Legal Counsels, National Council of Notaries, the National Council of Public Prosecutors at the Prosecutor General's Office, President of the State Treasury Solicitors' Office.

2. In the case referred to in par. 1 the representative of the Supreme Bar Council, the National Council for Legal Counsels, National Council of Notaries, the National Council of Public Prosecutors at the Prosecutor General's Office, the President of the State Treasury Solicitor's Office may participate in the team's meeting with an advisory vote.

Article 37. 1. If more than one candidate has applied for the judicial post, the Council reviews and evaluates all candidatures jointly. In this case the Council adopts a resolution deciding about the submission of the petition to appoint the person to fulfil the office of the judge with respect to all candidates.

1a. If the post of an trainee judge is applied for by more than one candidate, the Council reviews and assesses all submitted candidates jointly. In this case, the Council adopts a resolution regarding the presentation of a motion for appointment to the post of trainee judge in relation to all candidates.

2. The first and last names of the candidates, the stance of the team and the resolution of the Council, together with its justification, are published in the Public Information Bulletin.

Article 38. 1. The petition to retire the judge should contain a justification.

2. The petition should be accompanied by documents presenting the circumstances constituting the basis for retiring the judge, and, in particular:

1) the ruling of the Social Insurance Institution's certifying physician and of the medical board, if such had been issued;

2) a detailed summary of the periods when the judge did not fulfil his function due to an illness or leave to recover;

3) the medical certificates and rulings concerning the judge's health condition.

3. If consideration of the case calls for specific information, the Council may ask a court expert or several experts or to a competent scientific or scientific research institute for an opinion.

4. The petition to retire the judge due to a change in the organization of courts or change in the boundaries of courts' circuits should be accompanied by documents describing those circumstances, including the clarification of the reasons for not relocating the judge to another court.

Article 39. The petition to reinstate the judge to the judicial post should contain a justification. Appropriate documents should be attached to the petition. Article 38 applies accordingly.

Article 40. 1. The Council decides to commence proceedings or refuses to consider the petition as regards ascertainment of the circumstances stipulated in Article 7 par. 1 items 1-5, par. 2 and par. 3 and in Article 8 par. 1 of the Act of 17 December 1997 amending the Act - Law on the organization of common law courts and certain other acts (Journal of Laws of 1998, No. 98, item 607 and of 2001, No. 98, item 1070) by way of a resolution.

2. A copy of the resolution is sent to the petitioner and the judge concerned or to a member of his family together with a copy of the petition. A copy of the resolution on commencing proceedings is also sent to the organizational unit paying the judge's salary or family remuneration.

3. When delivering a copy of the resolution on commencing proceedings to the judge or a member of his family, the Council advises them about the tenor of Article 7 par. 3 of the Act referred to in par. 1, asking them to provide written clarifications and motions for evidence and sets an appropriate deadline for that purpose.

4. After a futile lapse of the deadline referred to in par. 3, and after the team conducts explanatory proceedings, the Council adopts a resolution ascertaining the circumstances referred to in Article 7 par. 1 items 1-5, par. 2 and par. 3 and in Article 8 par. 1 of the Act referred to in par. 1, or refusing to ascertain them.

Article 41. The Council discontinues proceedings if adoption of the resolution becomes redundant or inadmissible.

Article 42. 1. The Council's resolutions concerning individual cases must be justified.

2. The justification of the resolution is drawn up within one month of its adoption.

3. Resolutions concerning individual matters are delivered to the parties to the proceedings together with the justification and advice on how to lodge an appeal with the Supreme Court.

Article 43. 1. The Council's resolution becomes legally binding if it is not appealable.
2. If the resolution referred to in Article 37 section 1 or 1a has not been appealed against by all participants to the procedure, the resolution becomes legally binding in the part concerning the decision on abstaining from presenting a motion for appointment to the post of a judge or an trainee judge in relation to the participants to the procedure who have not brought an appeal.

Article 44. 1. The party to the proceedings may appeal to the Supreme Court on the grounds of contradiction of the Council's resolution with the law, unless separate regulations stipulate otherwise. The appeal does not apply in cases stipulated in Article 3 par. 2 item 2 of this Act.
2. The appeal is lodged through the Chairman within two weeks of delivery of the resolution together with the justification.
3. The proceedings before the Supreme Court are governed by the provisions of the Act of 17 November 1964 - The code of civil procedure (Journal of Laws No. 43, item 296, as amended⁷) on cassation appeal. The provisions of Article 871 of the Civil code are inapplicable.

Article 45. 1. Should new circumstances be disclosed, the Council may, ex officio or at the request of the party to the proceedings, re-examine the case.
2. In the event that new circumstances concerning a person referred to in the motion for appointment to the post of a judge or an trainee judge, as presented to the President of the Republic Poland, are disclosed, a request for re-examination of a particular matter may also be filed by the President of the Republic of Poland.
3. The Council decides about re-examining the case or refusing to do so by way of a resolution.

Chapter 4

Amendments to the current regulations

Article 46. In the Act of 17 December 1997 amending the Act - Law on the organization of common law courts and certain other acts (Journal of Laws of 1998, No. 98, item 607 and of 2001, No. 98, item 1070) in Article 7 par. 4 shall read:

"4. The circumstances referred to in par. 1 items 1-5, par. 2 and 3 with respect to the judges or members of their families are ascertained by the National Council of the Judiciary by way of a resolution. The motion to adopt the resolution may be tabled by the Minister of Justice, as well as the person repressed for its activities towards independence or protection of human rights, and should this person pass away - its spouse, siblings or children. The concerned parties can appeal the decision to the administrative court."

Article 47. In the Act of 27 July 2001 - Law on the organization of common law courts (Journal of Laws No. 98, item 1070, as amended⁸) in Article 70 after § 3 section § 3a shall be added, which reads:

"§ 3a. The judge or the board of a competent court concerned may appeal the ruling of the certifying physician referred to in § 1 and 2 to the medical board of the Social Insurance Institution within 14 days of the day on which this ruling is delivered."

Article 48. In the Act of 25 July 2002 - Law on the organization of administrative courts (Journal of Laws No. 153, item 1269, of 2005, No. 169, item 1417, of 2009, No. 219, item 1706 and of 2010, No. 36, item 196) the following amendments are introduced:

1) in Article 21:

a) § 1 shall read:

"§ 1. The president and vice-president of the court in the voivodship administrative court is appointed by the President of the Supreme Administrative Court from among the judges of the voivodship administrative court or the Supreme Administrative Court after obtaining an opinion from the general meeting of that court."

b) § 3 and 4 shall read:

"§ 3. Should the general meeting issue a negative opinion about the candidate, the President of the Supreme Administrative Court may appoint him after obtaining a positive opinion from the National Council of the Judiciary. A negative opinion from the National Council of the Judiciary is binding for the President of the Supreme Administrative Court.

§ 4. If, within thirty days of the day on which the President of the Supreme Administrative Court presents his intention to appoint a judge to the post of the president of the court, despite of a negative opinion of the general meeting of that court, the National Council of the Judiciary does not issue an opinion, the opinion shall be considered to be positive.";

2) in Article 21a in § 2 the first sentence shall read:

"The president and vice-president of the court in the voivodship administrative court is dismissed after obtaining an opinion from the general meeting of that court and the National Council of the Judiciary.";

3) § 3 shall be annulled in Article 46.

Article 49. In the Act of 23 November 2002 on the Supreme Court (Journal of Laws No. 240, item 2052, as amended9) § 7 in Article 31 shall read:

"§ 7. If the petition to retire the judge was submitted by the Supreme Court Board, that Board may also lodge an appeal."

Chapter 5

Interim and miscellaneous regulations

Article 50. The term of office of the members of the Council and the Praesidium of the Council appointed on the basis of previous regulations lasts until the end of the period for which they have been appointed.

Article 51. The Act of 27 July 2001 on the National Council of the Judiciary (Journal of Laws of 2010, No. 11, item 67) is hereby repealed.

Article 52. This Act comes into force after a lapse of 30 days of it being published.
